

Patriarch of Romania prepares chrism for use during Holy Week

After a lull of 10 years the Patriarch of All Romania, His Beatitude Daniel, commenced the process to prepare and consecrate the chrism, a mixture of oil and balsam used for anointing at baptism and in other rites.

The Patriarch noted that, based on liturgy of the Holy Week, the chrism will be prepared on Holy Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, with consecration held on Holy Thursday.