

Patriarch of All Romania Daniel receives members of Association of Christian Orthodox University Students

The Patriarch of All Romania, His Beatitude Daniel, over the weekend met with members of the Association of Christian Orthodox University Students who study in Bucharest.

The association's students are very active in briefing the faithful and seeking contributions for the completion of the Metropolitan Cathedral of the Salvation of the Nation, in central Bucharest.