

14/07/2022

Romanian Church clarifies position against abortion

The press spokesman of the Romanian Patriarchate this week clarified the position of the Church regarding a resurgent debate over the issue of abortion.

According to spokesman Vasile Bănescu, the Church has the obligation to promote moral responsibility, respect for life and the fundamental right to life and a culture of life.