

14/07/2022

Parish of Sts Constantine & Helen in Perth again hosts activity in support of homeless

More than 80 children gathered together at the parish of Sts Constantine and Helen in Perth on Monday, for a school holiday activity in support of homeless in the western Australian city.

With the blessing of Archbishop Makarios of Australia, for the second year in a row the specific Greek Orthodox parish teamed up with the Perth Homeless Support Group to collect donations and raise money in support of the homeless in the city.