04/08/2022

Metropolis of Hios transfers two properties to regional gov’t

The Metropolitan of Hios, His Eminence Markos, this week approved of the transfer of two Church properties to the regional government administration on the eastern Aegean Island, fulfilling a long-standing request by the local community.

Regional authorities announced that the resident Metropolitan had approved the transfer of the two properties in order for the latter to host a special education school and a youth sports facility.