Archdiocese of America reports positive financial results for 2021

The Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America this week announced positive financial results for 2021, as well as positive interim financial results for 2022

In a press release, the Archdiocese said treasurer Elaine Allen reviewed audited 2021 financial results at the recently concluded Clergy-Laity congress. In reviewing the financial results, Ms. Allen noted that without the support of parishes across the United States, the significant financial achievements of the past few years would not have been possible.

Audited financial results confirmed that 2021 was the fourth consecutive year in which the Archdiocese met its budget goals.
