31/08/2022

Continuing Education Retreat from Center for Family Care

Canton, OH—Director of the Archdiocesan Center for Family Care, Fr. Alex Goussetis, meets quarterly with group of Metropolis of Pittsburgh clergyman for fellowship that includes continuing education focused on personal development and refining their pastoral identities and roles as parish priests. The groups has been meeting four times a year for the last six years, most recently at Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Church in Canton, Ohio, pictured here.

The Center for Family Care provides an extensive variety of resources and training, including continuing education for clergy and parish ministry leaders. The Center encourages any interested in learning more about their resources, including the formation of a clergy peer group, to contact their office today to learn more.

goarch.org