A Blessed Weekend in Ulsan

On the weekend of August 27 and 28, Metropolitan Ambrosios of Korea along with Deacon Johan Park visited the parish of St. Dionysios in Ulsan. During their stay, they held meetings with the high school students of the parish. The topic of discussion was about the criteria of professional orientation. They also talked about church architecture, external and internal, and on the importance of symbols.

On Saturday, students and adults attended the Service of the Great Vespers, after which they participated in the Common Dinner of Love.

On Sunday, after the service of Orthros and the Divine Liturgy, there was another meeting with all the students which was followed by the Common Meal of Love.
