

Mamuka Bakhtadze: The Patriarch, in his epistle, emphasized patriotism, mutual forgiveness - everything that the Georgian nation needs so much

As Georgian Prime Minister Mamuka Bakhtadze stated after the Paschal Liturgy, the Patriarch, in his epistle, emphasized patriotism, mutual forgiveness – everything that the Georgian nation needs so much.

The Head of Government wished the country's population, especially compatriots abroad, a Happy Feast of the Glorious Resurrection of Christ.

“I wish every Christian, every Orthodox Christian, and every Georgian citizen a Happy Feast of the Glorious Resurrection of Christ. I wish them love, happiness, solidarity, and all the very best,” Mamuka Bakhtadze said.

The Prime Minister attended the Festive Paschal Liturgy at the Holy Trinity Cathedral, served by His Holiness and Beatitude Catholicos-Patriarch of All-Georgia Ilia II and other clergymen.

— Source: IPN