Archdiocesan School of Byzantine Music to Present Regional Music Conference & Workshop in Mobile, AL

Image not found or type unknown

With the blessing of His Eminence Metropolitan Alexios, Annunciation Greek Orthodox Church in Mobile, AL will host a regional Music Conference & Workshop presented by the Archdiocesan School of Byzantine Music on November 5, 2022 from 11:00 AM until 4:00 PM. This ASBM Conference is in-person only. There is no fee to participate in this ASBM Conference.

Any parishioner with a desire to learn to chant, please consider registering for this ASBM Conference. CLICK HERE TO REGISTER.

The Conference Program aims to inspire participants to learn more about our ecclesiastical music tradition and to engage individuals to be more active in their respective music ministries.

To accomplish these aims, the Conference Program will provide an introductory-level overview of the Psaltic Art (more commonly known as Byzantine Chant). It will also feature a workshop series where participants will learn to chant selected hymns of Vespers, Orthros, and Divine Liturgy in a choral manner.

Georgios Theodoridis, ASBM Director, and Anastasios Fakinos, ASBM Instructor, are the two expert presenters who will also provide instruction to conference participants. You can read more about the presenters here: asbm.goarch.org/faculty

All registered participants are also invited to chant in the choir at live services on November 5th and 6th held at Annunciation Greek Orthodox Church in Mobile.

If you are interested in having the ASBM present a similar Music Conference & Workshop in your area, please contact George Rallis at .

The Archdiocesan School of Byzantine Music is funded in part by the generous support of Leadership 100.
