14/09/2022

Another attack against Christian Serbs reported in Kosovo & Metohija

More attacks against Christian Serbs were reported this week in the Kosovo & Metohija province. Specifically, a father and son were stabbed by two Albanian mem on Monday evening, resulting in their hospitalization.

In an announcement, the Eparchy of Raška and Prizren condemned the attack and warned of more such incidents, which it charged aims to terrorize the Serbian population.