16/09/2022

7th Congress of the Leaders of World and Traditional Religions concludes in Kazakhstan

The 7th Congress of the Leaders of World and Traditional Religions ended this week in the Kazakhstan capital of Nur-Sultan. Among the participants was the Patriarch of Jerusalem, His Beatitude Theophilos III.

A joint declaration, the main document of the congress, contained principles of religious pluralism and tolerance based on the equality of all people in the face of God.