Blessing accompanies new academic year at Greek Nat’l School in Vienna

The customary blessing service for the commencement of the new academic year was held this week at the Greek National School in Vienna.

The ceremony was officiated by the Archieratical Vicar of the Ecumenical Throne to the Metropolis of Austria, Fr. Ioannis Nikolitsis, the school deputy director, under the blessing of the Metropolitan of Austria, and Exarch of Hungary and Central Europe, His Eminence Arsenios, who was away on pastoral visit to Hungary.
