Byzantine Ecclesiastical Music Masterclass with Nektaria Karantzi

A rare opportunity presents itself to learn from the world-leading vocalist, Byzantine Music professor and founder of the Worldwide Association of Women in Byzantine Music, Nektaria Karantzi.

Nektaria has run masterclasses at some of Europe's most prestigious educational and music centres including the Liszt Academy of Hungary, the Sorbonne University in France and the University of Oviedo in Spain.

In an Australian first, she now brings her Byzantine Ecclesiastical Music Masterclass exclusively to Melbourne's Hellenic Museum. The three-hour Masterclass has been designed by Nektaria Karantzi to maximise learning for students of all abilities; from curious beginners to advanced Byzantine chanters.
