

10/10/2022

Islamist Erdogan threatens to reconvert more Churches-turned museums back into mosques

The latest inflammatory statement by Recep Tayyip Erdogan, the increasingly authoritarian but also poll-trailing president of Turkey, came over the weekend, when in speaking to youth supporters, the Islamist Turkish leader spoke of reconversions of other museums in the country to mosques, similar to the desecration perpetrated on the incomparable Hagia Sophia in Constantinople, adding that "...God willing, others will follow".