Graduation ceremony at Orthodox college in Congo

The Alexandria Patriarchate's Metropolitan of Kinshasa, His Eminence Theodosios, this week attended a graduation ceremony at the Orthodox College of St. Athanasios the Athonite, located within the School of St. Mark, in the capital of the Congo.

The event was also attended by diplomats and representatives of the ethnic Greek community in the massive African country.

His Eminence also conveyed the best wishes for progress, through the Grace of God, and congratulations to the graduates, from the Pope and Patriarch of Alexandria and All Africa, His Beatitude Theodoros II.
