Cephalonia commemorates patron saint Gerasimos

The feast day of Gerasimos of Cephalonia was celebrated with solemn and splendid ecclesiastical rite on Thursday on the Ionian Sea Island, as Gerasimos is the patron saint of Cephalonia.

An archieratical service was held in the morning at the dedicated cathedral in the town of Omala, officiated by the visiting Metropolitan of Ellassona, His Eminence Charitonos, and co-officiated by the resident Metropolitan of Cephalonia, His Eminence Demetrios.

A procession of the Holy Relics of St. Gerasimos followed.
