Series of commemorative, devotional events on occasion of 500th anniversary of birth of St. Filothei the Athenian

On the occasion of 500th anniversary of the birth of St. Filothei the Athenian, the patron saint of a same-name municipality in the greater Athens area, the ecclesiastical council of the Cathedral of St. Filothei is organizing a series of commemorative and devotional events next month.

Additionally, the Archbishop of Athens and All Greece, His Beatitude Ieronymos, has approved a request for the Translation of the Holy Relic of St. Filothei, to be conveyed from the Metropolitan Cathedral of Athens, to the dedicated church in the Filothei district – for veneration by the faithful and clergy over a two-day period on Nov. 20 and 21.
