

07/05/2019

Russian Church stands by injured passengers, families of victims of recent aviation disaster

Orthodox clergymen visited the passengers that were injured in a recent aviation accident at the city's main airport, conveying the best wishes and prayers of the Russian Patriarch, His Holiness Kirill.

The Russian Church is also providing material assistance and psychological support to the families of victims.