

Meeting held with Ambassador of Azerbaijan over Davit Gareji issue in Patriarchate

Meetings were held with the Ambassador of Azerbaijan and the representative of the head of the Caucasian Muslims' Union in connection with the Davit Gareji issue in the Patriarchate of Georgia on May 4-5, – head of the Patriarchate's press service, Andria Jagmaidze, reports.

“The Patriarchate will be actively involved in solving the problem related to the Davit Gareji monastery complex. On May 4 and 5, the meetings were held with the Ambassador of Azerbaijan Dursun Hasanov and the representative of the head of the Caucasian Muslims' Union issue Ali Aliyev in the Patriarchate of Georgia. The topic of the meeting was the processes related to the Davit Gareji monastery. It was underlined at the meeting that the friendly relationship between the two countries needs to be protected and it is unacceptable to stir confrontation. The Davit Gareji monastery is the most important Georgian sacred monument and problems should be solved as soon as possible”, – Andria Jagmaidze wrote on Facebook.

— Source: 1tv