Feast day of Saint Gregory Palamas celebrated at Holy Metropolis of Kastoria

The memory of St. Gregory Palamas, Archbishop of Thessaloniki, was venerated on Monday – the feast day of the saint – at the Holy Metropolis of Kastoria, with the resident Metropolitan, His Eminence Metropolitan Kallinikos, officiating at a Divine Liturgy at the Chapel of the Archangels.

The Congregation of faithful included students of a nearby public primary school, with His Eminence preaching the sermon to the faithful.
