The Executive prepared the agenda of the forthcoming Plenary of the JWG in September 2019 in Lyon, France.

“The group also evaluated the progress of its work during the current mandate, especially regarding study documents on Peace Building in Situations of Violence, and on Migrants and Refugees as an Ecumenical Challenge and Opportunity,” the communique reads.

The next WCC Assembly, scheduled for September 2021 in Karlsruhe, Germany, will mark the end of the current Joint Working Group mandate.
