

Metropolis of Sweden Registers Two New Parishes in Kammarkollegiet

STOCKHOLM — The Holy Metropolis of Sweden and All Scandinavia recently received two decisions by Kammarkollegiet (the Swedish Authority responsible for registering new parishes), reaffirming the establishment of its two new parishes in Borås and Jönköping.

The parish in Borås is named “Panagia Parish,” while the parish in Jönköping is named “Sts. Constantine & Helen Parish.”

The Metropolis is joyful and excited to continue developing and pursuing its ministries as a missionary Church, spreading Orthodox Christianity and ministering to all faithful across Scandinavia, regardless of their nationality and ethnic background.

Metropolisofsweden