Voter rolls for first ballot of new Archbishop of Cyprus to be posted

The election process to elect a new Archbishop of Cyprus continues on the east Mediterranean island republic, following the repose in the Lord of Archbishop Chrysostomos II last month.

Preliminary election rolls of eligible voters will be posted today in every parish and community of the Archieratical jurisdiction.

According to an announcement by the Church of Cyprus, the election rolls will not include individuals who have exercised their right to delete their names from the lists.
