SMYRNA, the 6-time Hellenic Academy-Award winning epic war drama based on the true catastrophic events that changed the course of our Greek history is coming to the big screen across the United States & Canada in 700 theatres nationwide on Thursday, December 8 as one-night only

Dear Friends,

We're pleased to announce that SMYRNA, the 6-time Hellenic Academy-Award winning epic war drama based on the true catastrophic events that changed the course of our Greek history is coming to the big screen across the United States & Canada in 700 theatres nationwide on Thursday, December 8 as one-night only Fathom Events release.

A century after the disaster of Smyrna comes to life the critically acclaimed and moving drama about an elderly Greek American woman whose family diary recounts the 1922 burning of the cosmopolitan city of Smyrna where Greeks, Turks, Jews, Armenians and Levantines once lived together harmoniously.

The Fathom Events screening on Thursday, December 8 includes an exclusive special bonus feature with behind the scenes of the making-of SMYRNA with exclusive talent interviews and a live recorded performance of select songs from the original SMYRNA soundtrack of the Greek famous composer Andreas Katsigiannis with the world famous singer Alkistis Protopsalti and other music artists.

2-time Academy Award Nominated Director, Atom Egoyan says SMYRNA is “An urgent and multilayered examination of an unspeakable atrocity. Told with great passion and brimming with outrage.”

It’s a great opportunity to gather family members and friends to experience this beautiful and significant film on the big screen.
