

Melbourne: Festive Divine Liturgy at the Holy Church of Saint Spyridon, Clayton

The memory of Saint Spyridon the wonderworker, Bishop of Trymithous, was celebrated resplendently in the Archdiocesan District of Melbourne, with the centre of the festive divine services taking place at the celebrating same-name Holy Church in the suburb of Clayton.

On the main day of the feast, as well as on the eve, the Parish - Community of Clayton was visited by the His Grace Bishop Kyriakos of Sozopolis. Joined by clergy of the Archdiocesan District of Melbourne, His Grace Bishop Kyriakos of Sozopolis officiated at the Matins Service and presided over the Festive Divine Liturgy.

At the end of the Divine Liturgy, His Grace addressed spiritual exhortation to the congregation, while conveying to everyone the wishes of His Eminence Archbishop Makarios of Australia.

Image not found or type unknown

vema.com.au