

Christmas carols performed for Archbishop of Athens & All Greece Ieronymos

The Archbishop of Athens and All Greece, His Beatitude Ieronymos, on Thursday was greeted with Christmas carols sung by a children's choir from the parish of Inofyta, His Beatitude's home town.

Earlier, the Primate of the Autocephalous Orthodox Church of Greece received Greece's Digital Governance Minister, Kyriakos Pierrakakis, at the Archdiocese of Athens.

Previous discussions between the Archbishop and the minister focused on cooperation between the Church and the specific ministry to promote and showcase the cultural legacy and Holy Relics of the Church.
