

Patriarch of the Serbian Orthodox Church, His Beatitude Irinej, received the President of Serbia, Aleksandar Vučić, and the chairman of the tripartite presidency of Bosnia, Milorad Dodik

In Belgrade, the Patriarch of the Serbian Orthodox Church, His Beatitude Irinej, this week received the President of Serbia, Aleksandar Vučić, and the current chairman of the tripartite presidency of Bosnia, Milorad Dodik.

The meeting at the Patriarchal residence came after an invitation by Irinej to the two Serbian leaders, with discussions focusing on the situation in Kosovo, as well as Church-state relations.
