

05/01/2023

Feast Day at the Holy Monastery of St. Ephraim of Nea Makri

The 3rd of January marks the occasion of the discovery of the Holy Relics of St. Ephraim of Nea Makri, in 1950.

This 15th century saint achieved the crown of martyrdom after refusing to renounce his faith at the hands of invading Muslim raiders, in an area east of modern Athens.

Thousands of pilgrims from around the world annually arrive at a Holy Monastery of St. Ephraim in Nea Makri, the Most Holy Mother of the Church, before the

vema.com.au