Meeting of the Ecumenical Patriarch with the President of PASOK-Movement for Change

His All-Holiness Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew, received at the Patriarchal Office, immediately after the completion of the service of the Sanctification of the Waters, the President of PASOK- Movement for Change, Mr. Nikolaos Androulakis, Member of the European Parliament, with his colleagues.

Their meeting took place in a cordial atmosphere where they had the opportunity to discuss current issues.

His All-Holiness thanked Mr. Androulakis, who hails from Crete, which is one of the most dynamic provinces of the Ecumenical Throne, for his constant interest in the ministry of the Mother Church and the issues that concern her, but also for his keen interest in the Communities of Constantinople, Imbros and Tenedos.

Afternoon Mr. Androulakis shared a meal with His All-Holiness in the Patriarchal Dining Room.
