Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew receives chanters of Constantinople at annual reception

The Ecumenical Patriarch of Constantinople, His All Holiness Bartholomew I, on Sunday received a large group of chanters in the Bosphorus metropolis, before hosting an annual reception in their honor at the Patriarchal dining hall.

In an address in Throne Room, His All Holiness reminded that the Church cultivates various forms of art, of which ecclesiastical music and psaltic tradition hold a particularly eminent position.

In a related development to the Mother Church of Constantinople, His All Holiness on Sunday also paid a pastoral to the Sunday school of the Georgian-speaking community of the Bosphorus metropolis on the occasion of a celebratory event for the new year.
