

23/01/2023

Inaugural feast day of recently canonized St. Vissarionas at Monastery of Agathonos, in south-central Greece

An archieratical Divine Liturgy was held on Sunday at the Catholicon, or main cathedral, of the Holy Monastery of Agathonos, in south-central Greece, on the occasion of the inaugural feast day of St. Vissarionas, the reposed Abbot of the Monastery, after the Holy and Sacred Synod of the Ecumenical Patriarchate canonized the saint last June.

