

20/05/2019

Twin infants who clung to life baptized Cosmas and Damianos by Orthodox missionaries

Two infant twins that miraculously survived a serious illness in far-off Madagascar, following the intervention by the Orthodox mission in the bishopric of Toliara, in the island nation's south, were baptized recently, with the given names being Cosmas and Damianos – two early Christian twin brothers and physicians.