

02/02/2023

Church of Greece observes day devoted to young people

Today, Feb. 2, is devoted to young people by the Autocephalous Orthodox Church of Greece, with the Church and its Fathers paying particular attention to problems and concerns faced by today's younger generations, as well as on ominous instances of violence plaguing society.

The Church of Greece's concern over all issues affecting Greek society and the nation were expressed by hierarch-members of the Holy Synod last October.