Educational Webinar Series Offered by the Department of Greek Education

In partnership with the Democritus University of Thrace, the Department of Greek Education will be hosting a series of online educational professional development webinars. The educational talks will be centered around the new Greek Language Framework that the Department recently released.

The aim of each of the sessions is to assist classroom teachers in implementing into practice this new framework by creating lessons and educational material.

The four-part webinar series begins at February 8, 2023 8.00-9.30pm est. "Introduction, Early Features"
