Feast day Parthenios, Bishop of Lampsakos

The Church today venerates Parthenios, Bishop of Lampsakos, the patron saint of those afflicted with cancer. Today is also the feast day of Luke of Mount Stirion.

The Pemptousia television platform on Tuesday posted a feature showing last year's Translation of the Honest Head of St. Parthenios to the Holy and Great Monastery of Vatopedi, on Mount Athos, conveyed by the Church of Greece's Metropolitan of Halkida, His Eminence Chrysostomos, on the feast day of the saint.
