

Church of Greece Primate receives visiting Archbishop of Cyprus

Archbishop of Athens and All Greece, His Beatitude Ieronymos, on Tuesday received the visiting Archbishop of Cyprus, His Beatitude Chysostomos, at the Athens Archdiocese.

The Autocephalous Orthodox Church of Cyprus' Archbishop has recently commenced a series of meetings with the world's Orthodox Primates.

On Monday, he was received in Sofia by the Patriarch of the Bulgarian Orthodox Church, His Holiness Neophyte.

Last Friday, His Beatitude was received in Belgrade by the Patriarch of Serbia, His Holiness Irinej.

The issue of the granting of Autocephaly for the Ukrainian Church was discussed in both meetings.
