Patriarch of Alexandria Theodoros II in Kenya for pastoral visit

His Beatitude Pope and Patriarch Theodoros II of Alexandria and All Africa, commenced a pastoral visit to Kenya over the weekend, where among others, he will celebrate his patronal name-day on Friday with the Orthodox flock in the country.

Arriving in the desolate region of Turkana, the Patriarch of Alexandria dedicated a new school and oversaw the distribution of humanitarian aid.

Moreover, while in the east Africa country, His Beatitude also congratulated the newly elected president of Cyprus, Nikos Christodoulides, for his election victory on Sunday in the second round of a presidential election on the island republic.
