

22/02/2023

Passing of Protopresbyter of Nicholas Tsouloukidis in Australia

The Archdiocese of Australia, with deep sorrow and emotion, announced the repose in the Lord of the Protopresbyter of the Ecumenical Throne, Nicholas Tsouloukidis. The reposed cleric of born in 1932 in the northern Greece prefecture of Kastoria. In 1958, he was ordained a priest of the Holy Metropolis of Kastoria, while two years later he emigrated to Australia and joined the priestly family of the Archdiocese of Australia, under the late Archbishop Ezekiel.

An exodios funeral service will be officiated by the Archbishop of Australia, His Eminence Makarios himself, Wednesday, March 1, at the Cathedral of St. John, in the Sydney suburb of Parramatta.