

25/05/2019

Bishop Maximos of Melitene promoted as the new vicar general of the Greek Orthodox metropolis of France

On Thursday, May 23, 2019, the official website of the Greek metropolis of France posted the following communiqué regarding the new Protosyncellus:

“Following the return of the former vicar general of the Greek metropolis of France to his parish in Greece, Bishop Maximos of Melitene, assistant bishop of Metropolitan Emmanuel, will now occupy the vacant post. Metropolitan Emmanuel promoted Bishop Maximos to this administrative position, as a direct and trustworthy collaborator. “

— Source: mgro.fr & orthodoxie.com