The Serbian Church's Metropolitan Bishop of Dabar-Bosna, His Eminence Hrizostom, this week dispatched a letter to clerics in the Metropolis, calling for prayer to alleviate the dire situation in the Kosovo & Metohija, while calling the breakaway province the "promised land of the Serbian people".

His Eminence called for the intercession of the All-Holy Theotokos, the Virgin Mary, along with prayer amid the ongoing Great Lent for the beleaguered Christians in the province.
