The new Board of Trustees of the Chalcedon Community visit the Ecumenical Patriarch

The members of the new Board of Directors of the Chalcedon Community who were elected after the Community elections held in December, on Saturday, 11 March 2023, met with His All-Holiness Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew, and received the Patriarchal blessing, on the occasion of assuming their duties.

The new Board of Directors presented to the Patriarch the decisions and projects carried out in the first months of the year, which at the end of the month will also be published in the community press.

Also present at the meeting was His Eminence Elder Metropolitan Emmanuel of Chalcedon.
