Archbishop of Albania Anastasios receives visiting Greek Tourism Dep. Minister Zacharaki

The Archbishop of Durres, Tirana and All Albania, His Beatitude Anastasios, on Wednesday received visiting Greek Tourism Deputy Minister Sofia Zacharaki at the Archdiocese.

The Greek minister was in the Albanian capital this week to attend the FESTA tourism event.

Talks focused on His Beatitude's notable spiritual work at Church of Albania and the resurrection of Orthodoxy in the Adriatic country after more than four decades of enduring one of the most isolationist and repressive communist regimes in the world.
