‘Man of God’ screened on Holy Monday in Belgrade suburb of Mladenovac

The award-winning film “Man of God”, based on the life, works, tribulations and miracles of 20th century St. Nektarios of Aegina, was screened on Holy Monday in the Belgrade suburb of Mladenovac, with the blessing of the Patriarchate of Serbia’s Bishop of Sumadia, His Grace John.

The film, by director and screenwriter Yelena Popovic, is a production of the St. Maximos the Greek Institute.
