Albania: The Orthodox Church of Durres was stolen

The Orthodox Church of Durres was stolen during Sunday night.

Some identified persons have entered the premises of the church and stole the money donated by believers who visit this church.

Up to now, the amount of stolen money isn't revealed yet, while the police is working on identifying and arresting the perpetrators.

"On June 3, 2019, identified persons entered the Orthodox Church in Durres and stole the money from believers' box. The investigative group is working on identifying and arresting the perpetrators," announced the police.
