

23/06/2023

Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew to conduct memorial service in Tempe

A Trisagion for the repose of the souls of the victims of the railway accident that happened in the area of Tempe, on February 28, 2023, will be conducted today, Friday, 23 June 2023, by His All-Holiness Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew, during his transition from Thessaloniki to Volos.

The Holy Metropolis of Larissa and Tyrnavos announced the above news, with its relevant announcement, in which it is states in more detail: “With feelings of gratitude to His All-Holiness, the Holy Metropolis of Larissa and Tyrnavos announces to the Christ-loving plenitude the wish of His All-Holiness Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew, on his way to Volos, to visit the site of the deadly train accident in Tempe and conduct a Trisagion Memorial Service in memory of the victims. The Trisagion will be conducted today, Friday, June 23, 2023 at 11:00 a.m. at the scene of the accident”.

vema.com.au