Archbishop Elpidophoros of America Welcomes Students from American College

On July 5, 2023, at the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America headquarters, His Eminence Archbishop Elpidophoros of America welcomed students from the American College. Accompanying the students were professors from school. The students are making an educational visit to America where they are part of the Athens College High School Drama Club's performance of "Koinos Logos", staged at the Hellenic Cultural Centre and the Maliotis Cultural Center.
