The memory of Saint Paisios celebrated at the renowned Greek Orthodox Community of Stavrodromi

The Renowned Greek Orthodox Community of Stavrodromi

On Wednesday, 12 July 2023, the members of the EMMELEIA choir from Agrinio, Greece chanted for a service in the Holy Church of Saints Constantine and Helen of the renowned Community of Stavrodromi on the occasion of the feast of Saint Paisios. His Grace Bishop Benjamin of Tralee officiated from the throne over the Divine Liturgy, which was conducted by Father Dimitrios Magioglou. The choirs were directed by Fr. Nikodimos Saidam and the choir director who were joined by the students of the choir.

After the dismissal of the Divine Liturgy, the guests sang traditional songs accompanied by traditional instruments. The event ended with the offering of treats by the Greek Orthodox Community of Stavrodromi.
