

13/06/2019

Patriarchate of Romania calls theatrical performance blasphemous

The Patriarchate of Romania this week expressed its deep displeasure with a theatrical performance in the country that insults and denigrates religious symbols. In an announcement, the Patriarchate of Bucharest said the performance's main intent is to insult religious symbols in the country, with the message intentionally blasphemous.