 TANENBAUM
COMBATING RELIGIOUS PREJUDICE
Building a world that respects religious difference

The Tanenbaum Center for Interreligious Understanding is organizing a book talk on Wednesday, August 2nd at 5:30PM ET at the St. Nicholas Greek Orthodox Church and National Shrine.

Attendees will hear from Tanenbaum Founder and President, Dr. Georgette F. Bennett, as she discusses her latest book, “Religicide: Confronting the Roots of Anti-Religious Violence.”

This conversation will provide insight on present-day cases of religious persecution globally, and share solutions for how we can each work to combat religious discrimination on a local and global level. The evening will have an opportunity for a Q&A from the audience, and close with a book signing by Dr. Bennett, where guests can purchase copies of the book.
